

DATA PRIVACY POLICY

This version is effective as of January 01, 2025

Welcome to XFAR LTD (referred to as "we," "us," or "our"). Protecting your privacy is our top priority. This Data Privacy Policy outlines our practices for collecting, using, and disclosing personal information from visitors and users of admtgroupllc.com (the "Site").

1. Data Collection

We may gather a range of personal information, such as your name, email address, and phone number, through various communication methods like emails and other forms of correspondence. Additionally, we collect details about your interaction with our Site, including visited pages and actions taken, using cookies and similar technologies.

2. Use of Information

The personal information we collect is used to improve and manage our Site, communicate with you, respond to your inquiries, and provide you with updates and promotions about our services. We also analyze this data to enhance our Site's performance, prevent fraudulent activities, and comply with applicable legal requirements.

3. Sharing of Information

In accordance with this Privacy Policy, we may share your personal information with affiliated entities and service providers. We may also disclose your information to law enforcement or government authorities if required by law or necessary to meet legal obligations.

4. Your Rights and Preferences

You have the right to access, correct, and delete your personal information at any time. You may also opt out of receiving promotional emails by following the instructions provided in the emails. However, you may still receive transactional or administrative messages related to your account or policy updates.

5. Data Security Measures

We take reasonable precautions to protect your personal data from unauthorized access, use, disclosure, or destruction. However, please note that no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is completely secure.

6. Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies

Cookies and similar technologies are used to collect information about your device, preferences, and activities on our Site.

Purpose of Cookies

These technologies are used for various purposes, including enhancing our Site's functionality, analyzing its performance, personalizing your experience, and delivering targeted advertisements.

Types of Cookies

Different types of cookies are used, each serving specific functions such as ensuring the Site's proper functionality, analyzing performance, facilitating customization, and delivering targeted ads.

Third-Party Cookies

We may also use third-party cookies and similar technologies, subject to their privacy policies, to collect data about your device, preferences, and activities across our Site and other platforms.

Cookie Management

Your browser settings allow you to manage cookies, including refusing, deleting, or receiving alerts about their transmission. However, it is important to recognize that changing these settings may impact the Site's functionality.

Data Processing Oversight

While third-party processors may assist in processing your personal data obtained through cookies, we remain the primary controller of this data, ensuring compliance with required contractual and technical measures.

7. Protection of Children's Privacy

Our Site is not directed at individuals under the age of 18, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from minors. In the event that such information is inadvertently obtained, immediate steps will be taken to rectify the situation.

8. Modifications to this Policy

We reserve the right to update this Data Privacy Policy periodically, with any changes becoming effective upon publication on the Site.

9. Contact Information
